Sexual, Cyber Crimes To Be Booked Under Act

Kapil.Dave@timesgroup.com
Gandhinagar: In a significant development, the state government is all set to amend the Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities (PASA) Act, 1985, by bringing in sexual offences, cyber crimes, loan sharks and organizers of gambling dens under its ambit. The government sources said the PASA Act would be amended either through an ordinance or by legislation in the upcoming monsoon session of the Gujarat assembly.

PROPOSED PASA ACT AMENDMENTS

- Instead of district magistrate, range level officers will get powers to take action under PASA
- Sexual offenders will be booked under PASA
- Cyber offenders will be booked under PASA
- Money-lending sharks will be booked under PASA
- Gambling dens organisers will be booked under PASA introducing new categories of crimes. Criminal activities like sexual assault, cyber frauds and gambling will be brought under PASA Act. The amendments will be in the form of a bill in the assembly or as an ordinance," said a source.

Three enter farm to steal peanuts, one found dead

TIMES NEWS NETWORK
Rajkot: Three friends in their early twenties tried to steal peanuts in a farm but ended up losing one of their partners who allegedly drowned in a river in Kotada Sangani of Rajkot district on Friday. Police said family of deceased Jitu Charolia (20) claims that he, along with his friends Abhel Charolia and Ranjeet Vaghela, had left home in Mahatpura of Kotada Sangani in the morning. However, Abhel and Ranjeet returned home but Jitu did not return till late and his family started searching for him. When he was nowhere to be found, they approached the police. The police started searching for Jitu and discovered his body on the banks of the river. His family members have alleged murder.

Four drown in Kutch in one day

TIMES NEWS NETWORK
Rajkot: In four instances of drowning on Saturday, four people lost their lives in three different ponds in Kutch. In Bhadeshwar pond of Mundra, 40-year-old Bhamaji Parthya drowned after he stepped into the pond while washing clothes. Parthya was a widower and lived in live alone. In Bada village pond of Mandvi Taluka, 65-year-old Jentiali Gada and his 22-year-old son Harsh Gada drowned while they stepped into the water to take a bath. "First Harsh started to drown, and while trying to rescue his son, father Jentiali, too, drowned. Both father-son duo did not know how to swim," said an official from Mandvi police station.

Monk held on rape charges in Idar

TIMES NEWS NETWORK
Palampur: A monk was arrested on Saturday on the charges of raping and seducing a woman in Idar on August 27. The 49-year-old mother of a girl in her police complaint dated August 25 has alleged that the monk, Raja Sahab Rajatik Sagarji of Paavayalmandir temple in Idar, had raped her in the worship room known as Uppashar during noon hours. On August 29, the survivor had gone to the monk to seek his blessings. In the room, the monk allegedly asked her to marry him, saying that he wanted to keep her as his wife and also take care of her daughter. Later, the accused allegedly raped her. He also threatened to kill her daughter if she disclosed the incident to anyone.
